Tyrone, GA, April 15, 2013—A group of students at Louisiana Tech are showing their support for our troops by organizing a Heroday where they plan to ship 100 customized care packages, called Heroboxes, to a deployed unit of American soldiers. Ryan Kavanaugh, a member of the Louisiana Tech organization called Tech For Troops, has been working with the Herobox staff to plan the event. Tech for Troops will be hosting two fundraisers:

April 18—Dinner at Scott’s Catfish and Seafood, Ruston, La 5:30-8:30
10% of proceeds and all tips go to the Tech for Troops cause
April 29—Dodgeball Tournament, Intramural Center, LA Tech
Entry Fee is $25 before April 29, $35 the day of

The group will come together May 1 to pack and ship the boxes.

Herobox is a nonprofit organization with a mission to provide the physical and moral support our heroes need while they are away from home.
